

Regional Alfalfa Production Workshop

Joining Texas & New Mexico Producers and University Staff

Friday, August 18th, 2006

Hereford Community Center
100 Avenue C

{Avenue C goes east from U.S. 385 at the first stoplight about 0.75 mile north of the intersection of U.S. 60 and U.S. 385}

Hereford, Texas

Registration begins at 8:45 AM Central (7:45 AM Mountain)
Program, 9:00 AM-1:00 PM
Lunch Included with Registration

Target counties include:

Texas: Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro, Bailey, Lamb, Oldham, Randall, Hartley, Dallam
New Mexico: Roosevelt, Curry, Quay

- 9:00 AM Overview and Agronomics of Alfalfa Production (Calvin Trostle, Texas A&M Extension)
- 9:30 Weed Control in Alfalfa (Brent Bean, Texas A&M Extension)
- 10:00 Break
- 10:15 New Mexico State Alfalfa Testing Program & Alfalfa Variety Selection (Leonard Lauriault, NMSU-Tucumcari/Clovis)
- 10:45-12:00 Break for field visit, including insect update (Carl Patrick, Texas A&M Extension)
- 12:15 Lunch & local dairyman on alfalfa forage quality and what a dairy wants--while we eat (Speaker to be determined)

Pre-Register!

Please pre-register one day in advance for meal count by calling Deaf Smith Co. Texas Cooperative Extension office, (806) 364-3573. A $20 registration fee covers the meal and your alfalfa crop book containing NMSU, A&M, National Alfalfa Alliance publications (2 or more attending, $10 per person).

2.5 CEUs applied for, both Texas & New Mexico

For further information, contact

Deaf Smith Co. Ag. Extension Agent, (806) 364-3573
Leonard Lauriault, NMSU Forage Agronomist, Tucumcari, (505) 461-1620
Calvin Trostle, Texas A&M Extension Agronomist, Lubbock, (806) 746-6101
Conference e-mail contact: ctrostle@ag.tamu.edu